

Disciplinary Process

If a member is found to be in breach of the rules, they will be written to by the Committee and asked to provide a written explanation of the incident/event within 7 days of receiving the request to do so. Any witness statements and/or evidence must be provided with the written statement.

Once received, the written statement will be considered at the next Committee meeting.

The individual concerned will be written to within 7 days of the meeting and informed of the Committee's decision/outcome.

The Committee will be the sole authority for the interpretation of the rules and the Committee's decision is final in all matters.

If you wish to challenge the decision a minimum of 10 members must support this challenge and should be submitted in writing to the secretary who will give a minimum of 10 days notice to call an Extraordinary General Meeting to debate the challenge (please see Burbage Riding Club Constitution)

Any person expelled from the club will not be permitted to re-join the club within 2 years unless the reason for the expulsion deems a life long ban.

No membership refunds will be given.
